Grace Lutheran School Discipline Policy

At Grace Lutheran School, we do not think of the term discipline as meaning punishment, but rather as guidance offered to each child to encourage personal growth in self-control, stability, and awareness of moral and spiritual values. Our staff is trained in the dynamics of classroom management and positive guidance techniques. When redirecting a child exhibiting unacceptable behavior, our discipline also includes guidance by the teachings and philosophy of Christ. All discipline will reflect God's Word as found in Matthew 18.

1. The Teacher will clearly explain to the child behaving unacceptably the type of behavior that is acceptable and together the teacher and the child will set workable guidelines to assist him/her towards attaining self-control.
2. Parents of the child will be made aware of his/her unacceptable behavior by the teacher using verbal and written incident reports. The teacher will request their suggestions and support. Every effort will be made by the parents and teacher to minimize and/or eliminate the unacceptable behavior and assist the child with his/her gain of self-control.
3. The Teacher will be responsible to report daily to the school Director, by documentation, all incidents of unacceptable behavior, the remedial techniques practiced by the teacher and parents, and the resulting behavior.
4. If unacceptable behavior persists, a conference will be held between the child's teacher, parents, school Director, and, if necessary, the pastor in an attempt to formulate together a resolution to the behavior problem.
5. The school Director has the authority to immediately suspend any child whose behavior is harmful and/or unhealthy to his/her classmates or school staff for an appropriate amount of time.
6. The school Director will promptly report to the Board of Education and Grace Lutheran Church recurring or escalating behavior problems and/or any suspension action. The final decision regarding the situation will be that of the Board of Education.

I have read, understand, and agree with the Discipline Policy of Grace Lutheran School.
